Vontier Named One of America's Greenest Companies

2025-10-23

Newsweek recognition reflects Vontier's impact in powering sustainable mobility

RALEIGH, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Vontier Corporation (NYSE: VNT), a global industrial technology company helping convenience retailers, fleet operators, and auto repair technicians unlock growth and improve productivity, announced today that it has been named one of America's Greenest Companies 2026 by Newsweek magazine. Vontier joins a list of prestigious companies, both public and private, that are leaders in sustainability through efforts to reduce their environmental impact.

The rankings are derived from research and analysis of public data of organizations in the U.S. that meet the minimum standards set by the European Union, widely regarded as the most advanced set of sustainable standards globally. The companies were evaluated and scored on more than 25 parameters, based on greenhouse gas emissions, water usage, waste generation, and sustainability data disclosure and commitments.

"This recognition reflects our deep commitment to building a sustainable future as we power the way the world moves," said Katie Rowen, SVP, Chief Administrative Officer. "At Vontier, sustainability means more than environmental stewardship – it's about creating lasting value for our employees, customers, communities, and planet. We're proud of the progress we've made and remain focused on achieving our sustainability goals."

Vontier's sustainability leadership has earned recognition from Newsweek's Most Responsible Companies (2024, 2025), TIME's World's Most Sustainable Companies (2024, 2025), MSCI's ESG AA Leader designation and Sustainalytics' ESG Top-Rated Companies. Its world-class safety program has also received global accolades including from the British Safety Council. Vontier's notable progress across all dimensions of its operations are highlighted in its 2025 Sustainability Report.
